Deep Recovery Hair Masque

Rescue Deep Recovery Hair Masque contains our exclusive NaturePlex Formula (see sidebar for more on NaturePlex). Rescue is a revolutionary reparative treatment that dramatically restores vital nutrients and replenishes moisture to dry, damaged hair. This self heat-activated creme masque helps open and smooth the hair cuticles, making them more receptive to product absorption.

Self heat-activation delivers to the hair and scalp our exclusive NaturePlex Formula for healthier hair; locking-in moisture and leaving hair energized with a radiant shine. Rescue is a complex blend of botanicals, vitamins and anti-oxidants, a multi-dimensional approach to nurture hair from the inside out.

The Lamas NATUREPLEX™ Formula blends these exotic botanicals from around the world:

Moringa Seed Extract: A natural extract from the Moringa Oleifera tree of India, which has been shown to help protect the hair and scalp from environmental stress and pollution, in addition to strengthening and conditioning. Referred to by many as the “miracle tree.”

Monoï de Tahiti: A super-moisturizing and strengthening aromatic blend of Tiare flowers and refined Coconut Oil trusted by generations of Tahitian women to keep their hair and skin healthy and beautiful.

Dansonyl: A natural extract from the Baobab tree of Africa—the “tree of life”—has been shown to help give strength and flexibility to the hair shaft, and help retain more moisture.

Fortified with Marine Sea Silk: A blend of two rare marine sea algae that helps balance and tone the scalp, as well as help nourish, strengthen and add shine to the hair.

Usage: Take an ample amount into the palm of your hands and rub together to activate the heat, and then apply to clean damp hair. Leave on for 3-5 minutes, and rinse thoroughly.

Advisory: When used as suggested, no advisories necessary.

Common Questions:

Q: How often should I use the Rescue Deep Recovery Hair Masque?

A: For hair that has been severely processed or damaged, the Masque should be used at least once a week. People with normal hair should use the Masque at least twice a month, to renew, rejuvenate and revitalize hair.

Q: Can people with oily hair use the Rescue Deep Recovery Hair Masque?

A: People of all hair types can use the Rescue Deep Recovery Hair Masque, as it doesn't leave a greasy residue. Hair is treated, without being weighted down.

Q: How exactly does this product work?

A: Heat activates the masque's ingredients, helping it to restore moisture and vital nutrients to hair.
